Parrot Grande!

Mark your calendar for September 1 – 3, 2006 for our annual weekend of fun, sun, music and golf at the Francisco Grande Resort in Casa Grande.

Final details are being worked on but we can tell you the entertainment lineup. We've got Mark Mulligan, Ray Cody, Bob Karwin and Stars on the Water coming for your musical pleasure.

We'll also be having our 9 and 18 Hole Golf Events, the infamous It's Midnight and I Still Can't Putt contest, balcony decorating contest (start buying lights now!), a silent auction and raffle.

For the newbies, this is our annual major fundraiser in support of the West Valley Child Crisis Center. All monies, after expenses, from the golf, auction and raffle go to WVCCC.

There are lots of ways for you to get involved. It takes a lot of folks to put this event on so we're ecstatic to get volunteers. If you're interested in Chairing or just working on a committee, please contact Michael Bauman, ggsjq@cox.net.

The committees are:

- Set up/Tear Down
- Registration
- Decorating
- Mini-Mart
- Golf
- Balcony Decorating
- Donations
- Silent Auction
- Raffle

We are always on the search for Silent Auction and Raffle items. As you go out to your favorite restaurants and stores, ask them if they'll considering making a donation of merchandise, services or a gift certificate. We have a letter from WVCCC attesting to the fact that we're raising money for them with this event and WVCCC will even send a thank you note to all donors.

We hope you all can join us for a great weekend!

Buffett Concert = Party Time!

Jimmy's coming to town on April 18th so, clearly, there must be a pre-concert party. This year, you've got two options and there's no reason why you can't do a little of both!

Ray Cody and John Milner will be playing at O'Brien's Pub from 3 to 6 PM. O'Brien's is on 35th Ave, just south of Northern.

Cricket Pavilion is letting us in early for a parking lot party. How fun is that going to be? We'll be phlocking starting around 3 PM in the South parking lot. Whoo hoo!

We Won!

Salsa Time!

Kathy Pfister

What can I say? If you haven't been to the Tostito's Salsa Challenge with the Arizona Parrot Heads, you have missed one heckuva party! We spent a beautiful day in the sun on March 25th, listening to our Buffett tunes, having libations, chopping vegetables and serving up our award winning Shark Bite Salsa.

Our booth before all of the action.

Shark Bite came out a winner again this year with a Second Place in the Individual Mild category. There were lots of folks clamoring for our recipe and we made sure we didn't run out unlike some of the other entries.

The perfect Parrot Head cooler – filled with Corona and Salsa.

Woody and Alexis Joyner chaired the event this year and they did an awesome job. Dr. Mantej Sra donated the money to buy our veggies again and we can't thank him enough for helping support our partying with a purpose. Steve (The Human Conduit) Cantwell was featured on Channel 10's morning show and did a great job of representing AZPHC and promoting the Salsa Challenge. His hat looks great on the air, by the way!

It's a great purpose, too. Proceeds from the Salsa Challenge go towards supporting a safe camp for children affected by blood disorders such as hemophilia and AIDS. We're very proud to support that cause!

Tina and Carol passing out Shark Bite Salsa.

In addition to our Salsa Recipe award, we defended our Best In Show status by once again taking the prize for being the most fun, partyingest, active...well, just being us. We've built a reputation and, despite people openly gunning for us, we lived up to it. Trust me, people know who we are there!

Woody looking for his next patient (victim)?

Craig Broadhurst and his presentation team set the standard at the Margarita Mix-Off by garnering a $650 auction bid on their concoction. Way to go to the group on that one – that's a lot of moola for one cocktail. The high bidders, the Birds, even came out to our April club meeting and are now proud AZPHC members.

Craig putting the finishing touch on his Margarita.

It Was A Lovely Cruise

Kathy Pfister

A bunch of the AZPHC gang went on the 8th Annual Atlanta Parrot Head Cruise in March. We were joined by about 400 other Parrot Heads from across the country on the 8 day, 7 night trip. What a party!

Hanging at Cheeseburger in Paradise.

The stops were in San Juan, St. Thomas, Antigua, Tortola and Nassau. All were beautiful, tropical places though I've got to say I could pass on seeing San Juan again. Some of us chartered a boat and made it to Jost Van Dyke for the day. No Kenny Chesney sightings but we did make it to Foxie's and the Soggy Dollar Bars.

Side trip to Jost Van Dyke.

We had our own, Trop-Rock entertainment on board with Jim Asbell out of Atlanta (seems to be their version of our own Ray Cody), KD Moore, John Frinzi (who coordinates the MOTM entertainment and is as cute as cute can be) and Jim Morris and the Big Bamboo Band. Our own Sam "Rocketman" Rainwater jammed in wherever he could on his ukulele and was even inspired to pen a new tune while on board.

All of the musicians seemed to have a great time and the Songwriters Showcase was a personal trip highlight for me. Getting to hear some fabulous musicians explain the ins and outs and wheres and whys of their songs then performing them is an awesome experience.

Togas from the Fashion House of O'Malley.

The trip raised $38,000 for Breast Cancer Research through a silent auction, Chinese raffle, 50/50 raffle and a couple of other fun events like toenail painting, Poker Tournaments (I don't want to say who in our group played poker or what the final results were but, if you want to know, just ask Rick Dudley) and one unique raffle item. A bunch of our friends (Robert, Dave, Terry, Alan, Eric and Scott) from the LA club put their mustaches on the block and people ponied up to see them shaved. They raised $800 and Scott even shaved his head!

Debbie and Terry in their classic togas.

It was a great trip, we made lots of new friends, now own our very own togas and we're proud that we helped raise that amount of dough for charity. I'm already trying to finance next year's cruise...maybe I should play some poker.

Robert Plasky of LAPHC loses his 'stache.

Pardi Gras – 2006

Steve Cantwell

While most of the club was hard at work upholding our honor at the 3rd Annual PF Chang's Rock'n Roll Marathon, a small contingency of Parrot Heads skipped town and made their way to the Big Easy. Their mission was to attend Jerry Diaz's 9th Annual Pardi Gras. It wasn't until November that it was known if the annual pilgrimage would happen. Two evil sisters called Katrina and Rita put the whole weekend in doubt. Doubt that it would or should happen.

Though the French Quarter had been spared from the flooding that ravaged much of city, it was subjected to a crueler attack, that of its own citizens taking from themselves. Some of the items taken were the signs that marked the 12 intersections along Bourbon Street. An email went out to Parrot Head Clubs across the country to help restore the Quarter by buying replacement signs taken by vandals. Our club responded to that call and along with other clubs $4000 was raised for the signs. Other moneys raised through out the weekend went to the New Orleans Musicians Clinic and COPS 8.

Street Sign Replacement Dedication.

Most evident in the French Quarter were the businesses that were running at reduced hours due to the lack of service workers. Many of the service personnel had been displaced by the storm. There were signs up through out the city advertising for help wanted, but there was no place for people to live who would have filled those jobs.

Steve and Connie – rebuilding Margaritaville One Drink at a Time!

Although the mood of the weekend was tempered by the events of last summer, Parrot Head tradition dictated the party must go on. The theme of the weekend was "Rebuilding New Orleans One Drink at a Time." A task well suited for Parrot Heads.

For those who have attended Pardi Gras in the past, the familiar activities were all there. Thursday evening was the kick off at the Tropical Isle. The ever-popular Pub Crawl took place on Friday. Later that evening was crowning of the King and Queen of Pardi Gras. With the Royal Court in place, it was time for the parade. The Pardi Gras parade wound its way through the Quarter. Starting out at the Tropical Isle, it made its way down Bourbon Street before making its way to Margaritaville.

The Booze Brothers Pub Crawling.

It seems that Jerry loves to add events to the weekend schedule. Last year it was the Pardi Gras parade. The new event this year was a street party. Saturday afternoon Bourbon Street was closed between Orleans and Saint Ann Streets. The show opened with Jim Hoehn and Sunny Jim. Hanna's Reef, with Jerry Diaz, closed out the show. During an intermission there was a ceremony dedicating the new signs, which were purchased with money donated by the Parrot Head Clubs. Councilwoman Jacquelyn Brechtel Clarkson was on hand for the ceremony.

Jerry Diaz and gang perform at the Street Party.

The money was only a part of what was given to the city. I believe we gave the city a big PHINS up. In a quote given to the Times-Picayune newspaper by Tropical Isle owner Earl Bernhardt "Given the events of the past few months, "Pardi Gras" is a breath of fresh air. This is the first convention since the storm. People from all over the country want to come back here. That's a good sign, a sign of getting back to normal."

Message from the Prez...

Kathy Pfister

Wow, I can't believe the first quarter of the year has come and gone! What a busy three months it was.

Successful months, too. We should all be proud of our Water Station win, donation to Adopt-A-Greyhound, work at the Special Olympics, Salsa Challenge trophies and Margarita Mix entry.

We couldn't win awards or donate time and money without our club members. Your time, efforts, energy and dedication are what allow us to commit to big events like the Marathon and the Salsa Challenge. Words cannot express how much your contributions are appreciated.

There are some upcoming events where we can use some help. There'll be a Feeding the Needy in June where we'll need cooks and servers. There's also Parrot Grande.

Parrot Grande is a fantastic weekend! It takes a lot of work to make "fantastic". Please consider volunteering for one of the event committees which will require some work ahead of time and some work during the weekend. We'll also be asking for folks to spend an hour or two working the mini-mart, raffle and auction during the weekend. The more folks who volunteer, the easier it will be on all of the worker bees!

I hope to see you all at an event this year – even if it's just the concert. I'll be in the parking lot at 3 that day so stop by and introduce yourself if we haven't met yet. Between the club meetings, happy hours, events like bowling and poker and charity events my fondest wish is that there's at least one thing that appeals to you and you can make it out to it.

If you have any ideas for events or friendly places to phlock, please let me know!

In conclusion, I'd like to thank the 2006 Board Members. Man, this group has already done a ton of work (and, in some cases, drafted their spouses to work, too!). Please give them all a big thank you when you next see them because, while a lot of stuff can't happen without you, most of it can't happen without them!

See you at the concert!

AZPHC LIGHTS UP P.F. CHANG'S ROCK 'N' ROLL MARATHON!

Mark "Crime Dog" McGuffin

While many of us Parrotheads prefer a hammock and a boat drink to actual physical activity, we still love to support a good cause – even when that cause involves a whole lot of people running a really, really long way, even though they probably own a perfectly good car.

Our banner (designed by Robyn Stone).

That was the case on January 14th when 66 of our closest Phriends descended upon Scottsdale to cheer on and hydrate participants in P.F. Chang's Rock 'N' Roll Marathon. It was quite the spirited water station, as you might expect from a bunch of Parrotheads, along with our neighbors from the First Baptist Church of Scottsdale. How's that for an odd matchup? Many of our new friends were nattily dressed in Parrothead garb! Discretion being the better part of...well, so we're not the most discreet people on the planet.....but we did break away from Why Don't We Get Drunk as it began to blare through our sound system.

The whole gang celebrating a job well done.

We were all part of something much bigger than ourselves and our club that day, as we joined nearly 5,000 other volunteers. That may sound like a lot, but it takes a lot of folks to support a race involving – get this – 33,000 runners, all to support health and fitness, along with eight official charities. And as an added treat, we had the opportunity to actually watch Haile Gebrselassie of Ethiopia shatter the world record in the half-marathon. He didn't need water we as he flew past us, looking like a man on a mission. It was a magic moment.

Teresa and Dianne showing good cup handoff form.

The man and woman of the hour were event organizers Lou and Karen Eagley. Their efforts got our station off and running without a hitch. As always, it comes down in the end to a group effort, and no one said it better than Pimp Daddy himself:

To all the Parrothead phlock that volunteered for the water station, let us say a heartfelt thanks to all of you. We could never have done it without all of your support. You all were awesome, and there is no way possible we were not the best prepared, best dressed, had the best music, and were the most efficient water station along the route.

We logged 650 volunteer hours for our club and for Parrotheads in Paradise, so the next time you see a Parrothead, give him or her a pat on the back, or maybe a hug around the neck. We deserve it!

Karen and Lou leading the action.

Good Deeds

Kathy Pfister

Our $1,000 prize for Most Spirited Water Station at the PF Chang's Rock N Roll Marathon was donated to the Thomas J. Pappas School for the Homeless.

A group of AZPHC members Dodged Cannonballs at the Special Olympics on March 4th. The average citizen, however, would say we ran the Shot Put event. This year, we did double duty as we ended up running the event and awarding the medals. The club also donated $100 to Special Olympics.

Karen awards a medal.

One cannot walk away from this event without being deeply touched by the enthusiasm and excitement of the competitors. Their attitude is awesome and infectious.

Team Parrot Head at attention!

We also phlocked at Phoenix Greyhound Park in February to have fun, gamble and hang out. We raised $400 for Adopt-A-Greyhound while having a darn good time!

How many Parrot Heads does it take...?

Calendar of Events

April 18, 2006 Buffett Show

South Parking Lot at Cricket will be open at 3 for our pre-concert fun. Also, Ray Cody and John Milner will be playing at O'Brien's from 3 to 6 PM. O'Brien's is on 35th Ave, just south of Northern.

April 22, 2006 Bunker to Bunker Golf

The tournament is at Orange Tree Golf Resort and is a 7:30 AM Shotgun start. Cost is $89 per person and it's a four man scramble format. Proceeds will benefit the Crisis Nursery. To register, go to www.bunkergolf.com. To volunteer to work registration and/or a golf hole, contact Rick Metivier, forumbo@cox.net.

May 5 – 7, 2006 PHINS To The West

Join our phellow Parrot Heads in Laughlin for some great music and lots of fun. Registration is now open at www.phinstothewest.com. You'd be hard pressed to find a better time at a better value that's only driving distance away from the Valley. The entertainment lineup is amazing! Registration ends on April 15.

May 13, 2006 Happy Hour is Bowling Night

Parrot Head Bowling returns at 7 PM at the AMF Squaw Peak Lanes located at 3049 E Indian School Rd in Phoenix. For only $15, you get three games and shoe rental. This is a good event to bring the 'keets to. Please RSVP to Michael "The Goat" Bauman, ggsjq@cox.net.

June 3, 2006 Feeding the Needy

Details TBA.

June 10, 2006 Happy Hour

It's back to the East side for an evening on the patio at the Teakwood's at 151 E Williams Field Rd in Gilbert. We'll start the fun around 6 PM.

June 17, 2006 Mom O'Malley Memorial Poker Tournament

We'll be playing No Limit Texas Hold'Em with part of the entrance fee going to Hospice of the Valley. Final details to come later but you can RSVP to Kathy P at wino@aparrotheads.org now.

June 23 - 24, 2006 Parrots in the Pines

Cool off in the beautiful Christopher Creek area for a weekend with Mark Mulligan. See more details at www.markmulligan.net.

September 1 – 3, 2006 Parrot Grande

You won't want to miss our annual weekend of fun, sun, music and friends at the Francisco Grande Resort in Casa Grande. Musical guests include Mark Mulligan, Bob Karwin, Ray Cody and Stars on the Water. Registration details will be coming soon.

November 2 – 5, 2006 – MOTM – Island Daze

Registration is available online at www.phip.com for PHiP's Key West convention. Register early as our annual convention was filled up last year and registration closed early.

We're always adding new events so check out www.parrotheads.org and our hotline at 480.895.370

New Members!

It's funny how concert time seems to bring us lots of new members. But, believe it or not, lots of these folks didn't join just for ticket privileges. Here's who has signed up since the last newsletter:

Scott Leeder, Linda Holly, Jim Register, Cynthia Baysdorfer, Dan Dole, Jeanette Dole, Gayla Register, Jackie Barndollar, Nicole Aguirre, Robin Moody, Jan McGuffin, Steve Moody, Muffy Massage, Douglas Denning, Scott Kurbat, Nick Schroff, B. Lynn Nevills-Denning, Carol Vyrostek, Wendy McDonald, Wayne McGuffin, Kay Young, Jason Moore, Tom Axline, Jay Thinnies, Virginia Blaker, Lon Murphy, Lindy Moore, Jennifer Weltz, Diane Tucker, Amy Vyrostek, Chuck Crance, Dawn Kurbat, Diana Pike, Don Anderson, Karen Anderson, Daisy Barnes, Christy Henderson, Stephen Henderson, Roger Kopp (about time!), Susan Bango, Patrick Scott, Dewey MacDonald, Michelle Parsels, Mike Mason, Christine MacDonald, Robert Price, Kerry Boutell, Brett Benard, Cindy Stoner, Alan Stoner, Catherine McDonough, Bridget Foulkron, Kala Chrislip, Steve Flanagan, Sean Caldon, Lucy Dickens, Richard Dickens, Michelle Weiss, Geoffrey Weiss, Melissa Spallinger, Richard Spallinger, Brett Benard, Steve Chitwood, Rox Chitwood, Alicia Ford, Nancy Markley, Colin Markley, Billy Hicks, Max Sirstens, Karen McKnight, Dave Selzer, Deb Selzer, Amy Zaccaria, Roger Bucholz, Christine MacDonald, Dewey MacDonald and Bob Peirce.

Support Our Troops!

This is an awesome idea that was cooked up by some of the 2005 BOD Members. Some of our club members have served overseas and know firsthand how great it is to get a care package from home. Some of our club members and family and friends are currently serving our country in lands far, far away and we want to give them that 'feel great' feeling with their very own packages.

We'll start collecting items at all of the club events and work on getting the packages shipped out. The following is a list of items you can pick up to put in the packages:

- Powdered juice mix (Gatorade, Crystal light, Kool-Aid) especially the individual packs.
- Coffee, either ground or instant.
- Snacks (Pringles and stuff travel better and can be easily packed in the truck, Beef Jerky).
- Toiletries (Razor blades, Wet Wipes, etc.).
- Parrot Head Paraphernalia. Give them some stuff to decorate their offices. CDs of THE MAN wouldn't hurt...
- Books to kill the down time that they have. Think funny and war oriented... Variety is good (nothing romantic).
- Couple batches of replacement headphones for the CD players or something. (Nothing big just something to kill the time).
- Home made cookies.
- Don't want to pick up anything, donate $$$ for the postage.
- Just get creative. They will enjoy the sentiment.
- Baby onesies, diapers and bottles (one of our related phlock is taking care of babies and asked for more supplies).

If you have any family or friends serving, let us know and we can add them to our 'care package' list.

Hoops Genius?

Congratulations to Woody Joyner for capturing the number one spot in our AZPHC NCAA Tournament Pick 'Em contest! Rounding out the top five were Doug Murray, Kim McGuffin, Jeanne Lykken and Les Roach (or maybe it was Erin, I just know it's one of the Roach folks and that they're U of A fans – no one's perfect). Thanks to the 18 people who played. Oh, and if you're wondering where defending champion, Jeff Brown, ended up – can you say 17th?

MOTM Registration

If you're thinking at all about going to Key West for this year's Meeting of the Minds – Island Daze, you're going to want to sign up very soon! Jerry Jeff Walker has been added to the lineup and registration has skyrocketed since that information was released.

Registration will be capped at 3,500 or on September 24th, whichever comes first and on April 9th there were already 1,280 people signed up. Go to www.phip.com to sign up.

Yahoo!

Group, that is.

Did you know we have a Yahoo message group for AZPHC? We used to use it a lot for silly messages, exchanging Buffett gossip, informal meetings and just chatting about stuff that was going on. It's kind of gone by the wayside, but we're trying to get it back into use. Please take a minute to sign up for it at <http://launch.groups.yahoo.com/group/arizonaparrotheadclub/>.

Then, start posting!
